

What size battery panel is best for a hair clipper

Should I buy a cordless Clipper?

I want to buy my first cordless clipper (either Wahl Magic Clip or Wahl Senior) - mainly because they are the only clippers on the market with a fade blade, compared to a taper one (i just want to try a fade blade, as I've only read good things about them). However, the fact that it's cordless, means the battery will lose charge over time.
